STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Sugar production during 1977-78 season had reached a record level of about 65 lakh tonnes. Taking into account the record sugar production and the high level of sugar stock in the system, the need to further maximise domestic consumption of sugar and other factors, the Government had removed controls on prices, distribution, etc., of sugar from the 16th August, 1978. The open market prices of sugar throughout the country have come down and are ruling at reasonable levels.

There had, however, been a disquieting increase in the arrears due to sugarcane growers, despite the efforts of the Government to liberalise the availability and terms of bank credit. The arrears of cane price for 1977-78 sugar season, as at the beginning of the current 1978-79 season, that is, on the 1st October, 1978, amounted to over Rs. 53 crores. There was also an apprehension that on one pretext or the other a considerable number of sugar undertakings might not commence production during the current 1978-79 season on time. In the interests of the consuming public and sugarcane growers and to maintain production and availability of sugar, which is an essential commodity, it became necessary to make provision for the taking over by the Government of the management of the defaulting sugar undertakings for a specified period.

In view of the urgency, and as Parliament was not in session, the Sugar Undertakings (Taking Over of Management) Ordinance, 1978 (5 of 1978) was promulgated on the 9th November, 1978 to achieve the above objects.

The Bill seeks to replace the provisions of the Ordinance.

New Delhi; The 19th November, 1978.

B. P. SINGH.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLE 117 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. 425-M (ABI) /78-D, dated the 22nd November, 1978 from Shri Surjit Singh Barnala, Minister of Agriculture and Irrigation to the Secretary, Lok Sabha.]

The President, having been informed of the subject matter of the proposed Bill recommends the consideration of the Bill under article 117(3) of the Constitution.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Bill, if enacted, would necessitate expenditure on account of payment to the personnel to be employed to administer the Act and to exercise superintendence and control over the Custodians, payment of amounts to the owners of sugar undertakings for vesting their management in the Central Government and for providing financial assistance to such undertakings to clear the arrears of sugarcane dues.

Under sub-clause (2) and (7) of clause 5 of the Bill, a Custodian-General may be appointed. He may have to be provided supporting staff and it may be necessary for him to set-up regional offices for smooth and efficient control of taken-over units. Their salaries and allowances as also other office expenditure would entail an annual expenditure of about Rs. 7 lakhs in the first year of operation of the legislation. In the subsequent years, there may be a decrease or increase in the expenditure on this account and the same would depend upon, inter alia, the number of units the management whereof is for the time being vested in the Central Government.

Although information about sugarcane dues of individual mills has been collected and a number of sugar undertakings has sugarcane dues in excess of 10 per cent. of the price payable for the cane purchased during 1977-78, it is by no means an indication that the management of all such undertakings shall have to be taken over. The reasons for such dues are to be adjudged objectively. It is, therefore, not possible at this juncture to have a precise idea of the actual number of sugar undertakings whose management may have to be taken over and therefore of the requirement of funds. It is, however, estimated that the take-over of the management of a sugar undertaking will involve non-recurring expenditure by way of loan assistance of the order of Rs. 50-60 lakhs towards sugarcane dues and Rs. 30-35 lakhs by way of working capital in terms of sub clause (2) of clause (8) of the Bill and a recurring expenditure of Rs. 6,000 to 15,000 towards payment to the owner of the sugar under taking in terms of clause 6 of the Bill. The payments under the said clause 6 will have to be made only for the period during which the management of the sugar undertaking remains vested in the Central Government.

The Bill, if enacted, is not likely to involve any other recurring or non-recurring expenditure.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 20 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the provisions of the proposed legislation. Clause 3 provides for the issue of a notice under certain circumstances to the owner or manager of a sugar undertaking. The form in which such notice may be issued may be prescribed by rules. Similarly, the manner in which such notice will be served on such owner or manager may have to be prescribed by rules. All these matters are of a procedural character. Moreover, the rules made under clause 20 will have to be laid before each House of Parliament and they will be subject to the scratiny of Parliament.

The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.

Memorandum explaining the modifications contained in the Bill to replace the Sugar Undertakings (Taking Over of Management) Ordinance, 1978

Apart from changes of a formal and drafting nature, sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Ordinance has been modified to provide that the Central Government will have the option of cancelling or varying a contract or agreement entered into by the owner or manager of a notified sugar undertaking in relation to the said undertaking either on the ground that such contract or agreement has been entered into in bad faith or on the ground that such contract or agreement is detrimental to the interests of the undertaking.

AVTĄR SINGH RIKHY, Secretary.
